

A PRAYER FOR NONBELIEVERS

by BRYAN ELLIOTT • from MORE THAN GOLD

“You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.” — GENESIS 50:20

As Christians, praying for those who don’t know the Lord is a critical part of our faith journey. Consider the following prayer as an example of how to pray for nonbelievers. Fill the person’s name in the spaces provided.

Lord, Your will is that none shall perish and that all come to repentance. I come into agreement with Your will and ask for Your mercy on _____.

Jesus, I know the only way people come to You is by the Father who sent You. I ask that You would make _____ desperate for Your love. Will You draw _____’s heart to Jesus, that (he/she) will know

You and spend eternity with You? I ask that _____ be given the opportunity to make Jesus Lord.

Lord, will You remove the veil from _____'s heart and eyes? I ask for You to move upon his/her heart to accept the truth of Christ and turn to You. I pray that the light of God will illuminate the eyes of _____'s imagination, flooding (him/her) with light until (he/she) experiences the full revelation of the hope of His calling. I pray the life of Christ will be released deep inside of _____, and the resting place of His love will become the very source and root of _____'s life. Lord, I ask for You to give _____ a new heart and a new spirit. Replace (his/her) heart of stone and give (him/her) a heart of flesh. Give him/her a heart to know You as Your people and to know You as (his/her) God. Lord, empower _____ with the revelation of Your love for (him/her). Open _____'s eyes to (his/her) true condition, so that (he/she) may turn from darkness to the light and from the power of Satan to the power of God.

Lord, I acknowledge that only You can change hearts, and I believe that You will do it for _____. I speak peace and blessing over _____ in the mighty name of Jesus! I speak of the things that are not as though they are and thank You for _____'s salvation! It is finished!

Lord, thank You for Your love, grace, and mercy over _____'s life. I pray this in the mighty name of Jesus. Hallelujah! Amen!

Praying for nonbelievers is our responsibility and privilege as followers of Christ.
